Those who enjoyed the evening of pleasure were Mrs. Hill, Dr. Southwell, Misses Muttis, Mildred and Margaret Thomson, Ann Scott, Alice Jovert, Beatrice Lind, Messrs. Beecroft, Cadie, Beam, Hofgaard, Cedric Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Marcallino.

School Notes

WAIMEA SCHOOL

Four hundred loaves were sent to Miss Elsie Wilcox for distribution at the National Education convention which is to be held in Boston. Many of the loaves were elaborate ones of Nihau shells.

Samples of insecticides have been given to the vocational department by the Sherwin Williams company. Mr. Ferreira has used them with success. The school garden will be somewhat larger in area next year. The much delayed poultry course will be instituted for the sixth grades.

A free educational movie was given at the school on Wednesday night. Mrs. Wright led chorus singing for fifteen minutes, after which two reels of Ford Factory films.

one of the capitol at Washington, and one on the different swimming strokes, were shown. The films are gotten at very small cost thru the courtesy of Mr. Loomis, a former Kauai Y. M. C. A. secretary. Next year such a show a month will form a part of the regular program.

Freshmen honor students for the last semester are Miyuki Yamase, Katsue Yamamoto, Shizuo Masaki, Umeichi Suenaga, Hatsume Marimoto.

The eighth grade graduates are fortunate in having Rev. Bayless to deliver the address at their graduating exercises June 22, at 7:30 p. m., Waimea Hall. The class will be as follows: Joseph Apao, Julia Apao, Misao Harada, Sataru Hamasaki, Yun Han Chong, Akira Houke, Tsun Oi Ching, Totoku Inohuku, Miyoka Kagawa, Chiyoko Kakuda, Haru Kurazaki, Andrew Leiki, Nobuyoshi Matsumoto, Kenji Matsumura, Tsukasa Miyaki, Kikue Marizaki, Mune Marimoto, Eddie Pupuh, Shigenari, Nishikawa, August Perry, Isao Seto, Yoshiko Takato, Fumio Taniguchi, Frank Wilson, Misayo Tsuruga, Nancy Wohlers, George Wright, Sakai Camachika, Tadao Yaguchi.

The Waimea grammar school met and defeated the Elelee Outlaws at baseball on their home field last Wednesday. Mr. Brodie made an admirable coach, referee, rooster, score keeper and umpire.

"LULU BETT"

WINS PRIZE

"Miss Lulu Bett" a novel by Zona Gale, lauded for its wholesome, rich, human appeal, was dramatized by the author, and when produced on Broadway, won the Pulitzer prize for the best play of the season.

Lois Wilson, who has the title role, was the outstanding figure in "What Every Woman Knows", "Midsummer Madness", and "Lost Romance," three notable DeMille successes.

YOU'RE A PART OF THIS PICTURE

Where William DeMille is working, there's a difference. His methods are thoughtful, subtle. He never beats the drum. He presents the scene, just as life, the inexhaustible dramatist, does. And you, who are merely a spectator, enter the picture without knowing it, and become a part of the action.

The still is not the inaction of vacancy, but the tension of the situations packed with thought and emotion. Each scene advances the story or builds a character.

Much of the "business" of Miss Lulu Bett is shown in "close" scenes, making it easy for the spectators to read the thoughts of the players.
